

NEW SPED PROGRAM INFO SESSION

Are you an experienced paraeducator who wants to earn your special education teaching license?

Join us for a live info session on how!

- Earn credit for work you're already doing
- Take advantage of available scholarships
- Evening and Summer classes offered

APRIL 22
@ 4:30 P.M.

JOIN LIVE SESSION HERE

MAY 7
@ 4:30 P.M.

JOIN LIVE SESSION HERE

A SPECIAL EDUCATION LICENSE WITHIN REACH!

Are you an experienced paraeducator who would like to earn your special education teaching license?

At UVU School of Education you can:

- Earn a Special Ed License in 2 years—taking courses in the evening and summers.
- Earn up to 25 course credits for your prior experience.
- Scholarships available!

MEET WITH AN ADVISOR TODAY!

To begin the program you need to have completed your general education requirements and/or have an associates degree. If you are close we can help you figure out how to complete the rest of your classes.

- ENGL and MATH QL (Math 1050 or Math 2000) courses must have a grade C or higher.
- GPA of 2.7 or higher
- General Education and Pre-program coursework
- Grade of B- or higher in pre-program courses (Math 2010 and 2020 courses C or higher)
- Pass LiveScan Criminal Background Check
- Additional courses that you may not have taken: AUTS 250G, MATH 2010, MATH 2020 (these are math for teachers courses). Contact us ASAP so we can help you take these courses right away.

ADVISOR: sheila.jacklin@uvu.edu

DEPARTMENT CHAIR: trevor.warburton@uvu.edu